LLM IN MARITIME LAW

UNIVERSITY OF KWAZULU-NATAL
COLLEGE OF LAW AND MANAGEMENT STUDIES
UNIT OF MARITIME LAW AND MARITIME STUDIES

INSPIRING GREATNESS
LLM IN MARITIME LAW

The Unit of Maritime Law and Maritime Studies at the University of KwaZulu-Natal (UKZN) offers a unique and highly specialised Masters programme in Maritime Law. Applications are invited from candidates who wish to specialise in this dynamic field.

Who should attend?
Port industry participants, attorneys, economists and customs personnel, Maritime Law students and practitioners.

Course content
Modules include:
- Admiralty Law;
- Carriage of Goods by Sea;
- Incidents of Navigation;
- International Trade Law;
- Law of the Sea; and
- Maritime Insurance.

Seminars will be facilitated by leading experts and practitioners in the Maritime industry.
Applications for Masters and PhD study by research are welcome. Prospective students may contact the Unit for further information.

Duration
The Programme can be completed through one year’s full-time study or two years’ part-time study. Seminars are held in the School of Law, Howard College campus on Mondays to Thursdays, from 17h15 to about 20h00.

Eligibility
Applicants must be in possession of an LLB degree or its equivalent and must have completed an undergraduate module in Maritime Law.

Closing date for applications
31 October for the first semester of the following year.
30 June for the second semester of the current year.

Applications for Masters and PhD study by research are welcome. Prospective students may contact the Unit for further information.